USDA RURAL DEVELOPMENT ANNOUNCES FUNDING FOR WEST ODESSA WATER SUPPLY CORPORATION

Odessa, Texas, May 21, 2004—Bryan Daniel, state director, Texas USDA Rural Development announces today that West Odessa Water Supply Corporation received a $3,000,000 grant through the agency's Community Programs Water and Waste Disposal Loan and Grant fund. The effort is part of USDA's national program to help provide rural areas with safe, dependable water and modern sewage systems.

"One of the goals of USDA Rural Development is to provide water and wastewater treatment programs that target public health benefits and provide economic opportunities to America's rural communities," said Daniel. "Rural residents can utilize our programs to help provide essential public services that will enhance their quality of life."

The funds will be used for construction of a new water system for the residents of West Odessa. The facility will include 12 miles of transmission line, a ground storage tank, booster pump station, pressure storage tank, and 38 miles of distribution lines. Approximately 302 users will be served by this project.

In Fiscal Year 2003, $64.4 million of loan and grant assistance was infused into 71 projects and assisted 137,451 rural Texans. USDA Rural Development's water and wastewater program is designed to bring fresh, clean drinking water and sanitary, environmentally sound sewage facilities to rural America's 53 million residents. Loans and grants are available to rural communities with fewer than 10,000 residents. Public bodies, corporations operated on a nonprofit basis, and Indian tribes, that are unable to obtain credit from other sources at reasonable rates and terms, are eligible for assistance.
